BEGINNINGS AND STUDIES

Born in 1983, she began learning the piano at the age of 6, in Lorraine (north-eastern France). In 1996, she discovered rock n'roll and joined a band as the lead singer and bass player.

She received excellent reviews for her piano-playing at the Epinal international contest, before continuing her classical piano studies at the National Conservatory of Nancy (Lorraine, France).

She co-founded her first rock band Sinkana (future Nehr) and performed her first rock n'roll concerts. In 2001, Audrey fell seriously ill and almost died.

Back on her feet, she studied musicology at Nancy University II and played the double bass for 3 years. She also studied at the international Music Academy.

FIRST BANDS: NEHR, ALTERNATIVE CULT

In 2005, she moved to Paris where she studied vocal technique, stage presence and music production at the Studio des Variétés, Le Coach, the D.L.F and Rezone associations, with her band NEHR (2005–2012).

In 2011, she founded Alternative Cult and released her first solo album, Love, in March 2012, co-produced by Sunday Küb, Mes Autres & Les Cuizines. She wrote, performed, recorded the 15 songs herself and also invited featuring guests. 2 shows were performed, co-produced by Mes Autres & Les Cuizines with Faustine Berardo's stage direction. 2 drummers, 2 singers/dancers and 2 musicians.

COLLABORATIONS AND FEATURINGS

The release of Love (Alternative Cult, 2012) was a major turning-point and she has since performed and recorded with many artists : Jeanne Added, Naive New Beaters, Vise Versa, La Nébuleuse d'Hima, Toby Screamer, Lea Mahjun, Polar Polar Polar Polar, Viroun Kattygnarath, Memories Of A Dead Man, Jina, Drama Of The Spheres, Shaarghot...

SOLO PROJEKT: HENRY

HENRY is Audrey Henry's new project, influenced by pop culture, techno music and rock bands. After 15 years as a musician in electro / rock bands (more recently with the french bands Jeanne Added and Naive New Beaters), she composed new SYNTH-POP SONGS.
